Review: Benedictine Daily Prayer: A	Short Breviary, Second Edition (Liturgical Press, 2015). The imposing modernist façade of St. John's Abbey casts a long shadow over the Minnesota countryside, an emblem of the dramatic influence this religious community has exerted on Christian worship in the United States. In 1925, Br. Virgil Michel, OSB, a young German-American monk, returned from Europe with the seeds of a	new religious movement.
