Authored by Kelly Murray, this book follows two people, from two different worlds, who come together for love. Witches Falls was a small town with a small town philosophy. But it drastically changed when a series of death occurred starting with the tragic murder of the schizophrenic Joyce

Dorothy McDonnell, who was tied up, suffocated, and sexually abused. Her death, and more that followed, alarmed the police department. While looking into these puzzling events, Persephone Dahl's ordinary life as a police began to alter when Javed Atanasio, a dog handler, joined the force. As they worked together to solve the mysterious death and other cases, romance developed between the two until they found out they were both in love with each other. But there was something about Javed that was mystifying. Not later, Sephi found out that Javed was a demon who existed for more than two thousand years. Would she accept him for who he is and where would this discovery lead them and their love? Skillfully written with mystery, suspense and gripping scenes, The Falls is one engaging read everyone will surely enjoy from beginning to end.

One of the most remarkable mechanized campaigns of recent years pitted the brutal and heavily armed jihadis of Islamic State against an improvised force belonging to the Kurdish YPG (later the SDF). While some Kurdish vehicles were originally from Syrian Army stocks or captured from ISIS, many others were extraordinary homemade AFVs based on truck or digger mechanicals, or duskas, the Kurds' version of the technical. Before US air power was sent to Syria, these were the Kurds' most powerful and mobile weapons. Co-written by a British volunteer who fought with the Kurds and an academic expert on armoured warfare, this study explains how the Kurds built and used their AFVs in the war against 'Daesh', and identifies as far as possible which vehicles took part in major battles, such as Kobane, Manbij and Raqqa. With detailed new artwork depicting the Kurds' range of armour and many previously unpublished photos, this is an original and fascinating look at modern improvised mechanized warfare.

Be vigilant when driving through Africa: camels are careless when crossing the road, and women carrying waterpots are little more watchful. So warn the authors of this fifth edition of Africa Overland. They also give updated information on each country's political and security situation (Angola, Sierra Leone and Liberia are on the up; since this guide's last edition, security in Western Sudan and Eastern Chad has turned sour); provide an expanded Route Outlines section including information on border crossings; and offer revised recommendations on vehicles including practical coverage on buying a vehicle, maintenance and driving. ?This is the ultimate roadies' guide to traversing the wilderness of Africa. An indispensable guide to negotiating the uncharted perils of Africa's vast plains.' Daily

East Asian Regionalism

Bradt Travel Guides

This book looks at the industrial policies of Southeast Asian economies in their motor vehicle industries from early import substitution to policy-making under the more liberalised WTO policy regime. The book examines how inward automotive investment, especially from Japan, has been affected by policies, and how such investment has promoted industrial development in the late-industrialising economies within ASEAN (Association of Southeast Asian Nations). It provides insights into the automotive industry of Southeast Asia in terms of production volumes, sales volumes, market structure, and trade.

Through country case studies, the book is a useful reference and illustrates how industrial policies in Southeast Asia have affected the spread of automotive development in the region. It will appeal to policy-makers and researchers interested in the automobile industry, industrial policies in the industry and the spread of development from foreign investors to local firms.
