The Human Cow

Experience

Ursula von

Strict

When Katrina is left behind after a raid on her village, the young woman knows she has to hide. But with an injured ankle, she can't go far. Her only choice is to crawl to a nearby barn and hide among the cows until the raiders return home. But when Thorim, a giant among men, finds her hiding spot, the scared, naked girl has nowhere to run. The raider has his sights set on making her his

Thrall, and there is nothing she can do to stop him. And when Thorim discovers Katrina is lactating, the Viking giant comes to value his new prize even more. Because now he doesn't just have a Thrall. Now he has a pretty little cow that he cannot wait to milk. And once he's tasted her, he'll take her hard. He'll make her his. He'll turn her into his pet. The only question left is just how much the confused Katrina will enjoy being Milked by the Viking...

It is always a pleasure to avoid responsibility and it gives me a feeling of relief to be able to announce that I am not wholly responsible for this collection. When it was suggested that I should put together the articles dealing with the Red Cow, and the other farm animals, I felt reluctant to trouble the public with a somewhat frivolous book at the present time. It seemed as if Fate were with me for when it was decided to go on with the book it was found that my file of clippings had been lost. But the matter was still urged and, remembering that at different times readers had written to me saying that they were in the habit of clipping the articles for future reference, I published a paragraph telling of my predicament. The result was that I received clippings from all parts of Canada and some were even sent from neighbouring States. Through the kindness of my unknown friends I am able to offer a book which they have really edited. Some of the sketches used would have been rejected had I relied on my own judgment, but finding that they had pleased some readers I decided that they might please others. Having the chance to shift the responsibility for the book from my own shoulders, I accepted it joyously. The unknown friends who did me the honour of preserving these articles as they appeared are the real

editors.

 Abandoned

Kitten When Anna losses her Master, she panics and shifts into her cat form, hiding in her animal mind because she doesn't have to deal with grief if she's a cat. Except nobody tells the werewolf who had been tasked with taking care of her that she's not actually a cat. It's not too bad, living with the Werewolf, except she's human too and have other needs that can't be ignored. Lost Little Rabbit Ally is pretty sure she's going to die. She should never have wandered away from her friend. Now, werewolves have taken interest in her and are hunting her down in broad daylight. She's a weak - and probably delicious - rabbit, so it's only a matter of time before they catch her. There are only so many places she can hide in the city. ~~~~~ PG Excerpt ~~~~~ "Hello there." The man looms in front of her, huge and terrifying. "What's a little thing like you doing out here all alone? Don't you know it's not safe for shifters like you out here?" "I um- I'm just here for the event," she stutters. "If you could point me in the direction of my hotel, that would be very helpful," she says, hoping her ears are properly tucked under her hair and they can't see them. Apparently city folks are weird about Shifters like her, which was why Darnell had been so wary about letting her out of the hotel. "Aren't you sweet?" The man sneers, looming in front of her, closing in and grabbing her wrist hard enough to hurt. "Please let go," she says, her heartbeat going too fast. "I- Please," she whimpers, eyes filling with tears. She can hold onto her shift easier now that she's older, but she's fast forgetting how to keep in control because she's really scared right now. "Why would I do that? Sweet little thing like you," he drawls, leaning in and licking a wet strip up her cheek. It's really gross and she pulls away, cheeks going bright red with humiliation. The other werewolves are closing in now too, trapping her between them to give her the feeling of prey being surrounded. It's terrifying.

Her breath hitches and her eyes burn with tears. She wipes away the saliva on her cheek with the back of her hand. She doesn't like the way he smells like cigarette smoke. He yanks her close, pulling their bodies closer together and then he shifts partially so that his fingers turn into sharp claws right in front of her eyes. She thinks of hitting him and running away but

she's outnumbered.
She closes her
eyes and
grimaces
when she
feels him
comb through her hair, tips
of his claws
cutting
through her
hair band like
it's made of paper. Her hair tumbles
out from the
ponytail and
her rabbit ears
drop down. A
whine escapes
her throat. Her
ears fold back,
and she
trembles
quietly,
panicking.
"Jesus-" "Oh
my god."
"What the-"
eyes, heart

beating so
hard she's afraid it would break through her rib cage
and abandon
her. "Aren't you just lovely," he
grins and she can feel his breath on her
cheek,
burning hot
and smelling
like cigarette
smoke and danger. Her ears are folded all the way back
pressing into her ear so his words have a sort of echo to them. She yelps when he clutches her
long ears in his palm and
tugs her head
back,

exposing her
bare neck to him and
looking at her
like he's trying to find the best place to
slit her neck.
It hurts to
have her ears
tugged like this. "You're going to catch a high price at
the market.
But maybe we can play with you a little before we
send you
there," he
says, his voice
dropping low.
He leans in
close, mouth
parted a little bit like he's going to kiss
her and the idea of his lips
on hers makes her blood run

cold. Her breath hitches and she loses control of her shift entirely. It happens between one breath and the next, her body shrinking so rapidly that his hold on her ears loosen enough for her to drop straight down onto the pavement. She runs, leaving behind her favorite dress and what little spare change she has in her pockets.

Professor Snow address the whole class. He raises his hand automatically and is pleased to note that none of the werewolves do. The professor frowns because everything he's heard about werewolves had told him that they would leap at the chance to breed hucows. He doesn't know that they can smell her. They know she belongs to someone. She's his. If they touch her, they're going to be answering to his pack and he's lucky there too, because his pack is strong and powerful, because he's an Alpha on his own and he can take ten werewolves his size without breaking a sweat. "Alright, Erik. Come on up. You can break her in so that the rest of your classmates can have a go." He would castrate them before they can get close to her. He pushes his chair back. Professor Snow yanks her blanket away, showing her off to everyone and briefly, he considers mauling them all.  Excerpt

 "What are you thinking about?" he asked, his voice feeling much closer to me than he was, so soft it was almost a whisper, but deep enough to vibrate through my bones. I took a deep breath and exhaled slowly thought my nose, taking my time to completely empty my lungs before taking in air again, a meditative trick I had learned a few months ago in a free yoga class. It helped calm me down when I panicked, which I was very close to doing at that very moment, especially with him looking at me like that. "Nothing, sir," I said truthfully. He stood up and I took a tentative step back, trying to create a distance between us. That seemed to displease him. His lips tightened into a straight line and I held my breath as I waited for him to talk. The tension in the air made it hard to breathe. It didn't help matters that the scent of his cologne filled my lungs, intoxicating my mind and body. I saw his eyes flick down and notice the change in my body. He appraised my body without shame. I continued standing up straight, resisting the strong urge to cover my chest with my arms. "I like what you're wearing," he said, eyeing me up and down, drinking in the sight of my body, almost transparent against the white material and the short skirt that barely covered my anything. I tried to tug the skirt down a little more, but it was no use. "You'll be wearing this from now on," he said with a tone that left no room for protests. "Yes, sir," I said, my voice barely above a whisper. He leaned back against the desk, almost sitting on it as he folded his muscular arms over his chest. He exuded power. "Your work hours are clearly stated in the contract. Now, given that you had an early start today, I'm willing to excuse your behavior this time." "Thank you," I breathed a sigh of relief. "Nevertheless, you should still be punished for your tardiness," he said, walking around behind me so I couldn't see him. My heart caught in my throat. I felt his breath against my ear and knew he was leaning close to me. Despite my nerves, I remained absolutely still, waiting for the sound of his voice. "Stand up and lean over the desk," he said finally.
