The Song of Solomon Our Sunday Visitor

To be a Christian today, to follow Our Lord and accept His call to discipleship, demands heroic courage. It takes deep faith to live the particular - special, unique - vocation that's yours alone. Heaven knows it isn't easy. St. Peter knows it, too. He's well aware that even the most enthusiastic and committed Christian can become frightened and unsure, can make mistakes and betray a loved one, can seek and receive forgiveness, can begin again and - with an even stronger faith - can go on to face life's most difficult challenges. To Whom Shall We Go? presents the words and actions of St. Peter as it clearly shows how his life - his strengths, weaknesses, joys, and sorrows - offers an example for all of us. How it offers hope for each of us.

Leaders everywhere, in arenas big and small, struggle with the desire and, frankly, the need to make sure their vision for the organization they have created or grown continues regardless of circumstances. And the question "what will be my legacy?" is a question all people ask themselves. Myles Munroe has observed that the tendency among leaders is to deal with this question as serious circumstances or retirement loom. Further, it is his belief that this is one of the most important decisions a leader will ever make. This book is a wakeup call. Myles Munroe wants all leaders to focus on building the right team for the future and to make it a top priority because the process is not a quick one. Properly mentoring the right people to ensure the continuation of an organization is actually a process that must be woven into that organization over a span of years or even decades. Chapter topics discussed include The Chaos of Transition The Leadership Dilemma Living Beyond Your Generation The Principles of Mentoring PASSING IT ON shows how to use the concept of mentoring within an organization to value the distinct talents and abilities of the individuals. Mentoring is the pathway to developing leaders from within; leaders who are in line with the goals of the organization; leaders who are most likely to adopt and carry a vision forward.

The Purpose and Power of Authority Spiritual Growth

1Co 2:12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. So the bible starts there, by telling us there is a mystery shrouded by the wisdom of God and it is called the hidden wisdom of God and that this hidden wisdom has been kept for the of the saints, please understand and that the bible says this wisdom is not the same as the wisdom of the world nor of the princes of this world that comes to naught. He is trying to show the un-surpassing excellency of this hidden wisdom that relative to the wisdom of the world and relative even to the wisdom of the princes of the world, it comes to naught, it can't be compared, but he says that this wisdom is hidden and that there is only one entity mandated with the responsibility of searching out this wisdom and bringing it to the saints but the bible says whoever by any means can access that wisdom, the destiny of that person regardless is the glory that it was hidden for, the glory of the saints, that means that I can look at your life and know that you have accessed that wisdom by the dimension of glory that vetoes your background, the dimension of glory that vetoes the limitation of glory around your life. There is a mystery that can lift men out of the grip of the terror and the vicissitude of this life, the bible says it is the hidden wisdom of God, a body of information privy to the seen that the holy spirit can grant you access to, that if by any means my brothers and sisters, regardless of your background, that you hold on to this wisdom, then your world will see you as a wonder and a marvel, they look at you and they see attributes that are not allowed for humans to have, your hidden wisdom revealed by the spirit. Anointing Fall on Me Montlake Romance

Nothing ever happens on its own on this earth. Evil or good. Miracles do not happen just like that, tragedy too. Failures do not just happen, success does not just happen, the anointing does not just come, people don't just backslide. There is always certain operations that are initiated even in ignorance. For example, if I kick a speaker by mistake, the pain will not refuse to come to my leg because it thinks I made a mistake, as far as the system of pain is concerned that action calls for it. So, in ignorance, we have activated a lot of spiritual laws and dis-coordinated them and we have become victims of the interplay of those laws. It's like cutting a naked wire and putting it on your head by mistake when it's raining. Now, whether you're aware or not, the wire will not excuse that mistake. It'll shock you. We are submitting ourselves to the dealings of the Spirit day after day, week after week, month after month. We are subjecting ourselves as students in the spirit allowing Him to change us and bring us into the comprehension of Kingdom realities. Because a time will come when the dividends of this sacrifice will appear unto all and we want to position ourselves. We are not careful to admit that not everybody is opened to the things of the Spirit especially in this day and age where there are all kinds of Christian distractions. The church of Christ has become a place where ethics of religion are taken as usual. But the presence of Christ and His body ought to be a place of freshness where we can communicate to the world what the spirit of the Lord is doing at every given time. Read This Book and Be Blessed

 In Understanding the Purpose and Power of Authority, best-selling author Dr. Myles Munroe turns the widely accepted but counterfeit concept of authority upside down. Then, he reveals God's original intent, showing us how to live in the freedom of our own personal authority in God's great design and to respond positively to the inherent authority of others. Many people view authority as something oppressive, stifling, and even fearful. All of us hate to be controlled or manipulated. Our negative concepts and experiences of authority produce life-draining emotions—fear, distrust, suspicion, friction, defensiveness, antagonism, stress, worry, and dread. Others have a limited perspective of what authority means, believing that only people who reach a certain "level" in life can exercise it. They don't believe they could ever be called to a place of authority. The truth is, we were all created for authority, and we are all answerable to the authority of others. Authority is what we're authorized to do by our inherent purposes. You have a God-given calling to develop your own personal authority to carry out your unique purpose in life.

There is news I read about a master who discovered his PA was defrauding him and he gave him some time to pay back the money but the PA went ahead later to butcher his boss' body till he died, I always say (wicked people don't change, immediately

God has given those of us who are fathers a unique and powerful role to fulfill with our children. Therefore, as Christians, we are expected to bless our children with a rich legacy of the things of God so that they will want to follow Him all their lives. The blessing can also have a ripple effect on future generations because God wants His children to be fruitful. The Father's blessing requires pursuit. It requires you to seek it; seek to be around it; plan to be where it is flowing and walk with those who have it. The blessing will not just fall on you without doing anything. It will require you to show through your persistence that you value it. Ronke Adeoti's book, The Father's Blessing, teaches us that we must value the blessing. We must recognise that everything we need to fulfill our purpose on earth is in the blessing. We do not seek after things, we seek the Kingdom, which is the blessing, and all other things will be added to us.
