Under God's Construction Harvest House Publishers

This second edition of the highly successful Popular Singing serves as a practical guide to exploring the singing voice while helping to enhance vocal confidence in a range of popular styles. The book provides effective alternatives to traditional voice training methods, and demonstrates how these methods can be used to create a flexible and unique sound. This updated and thoroughly revised edition features a new chapter on training for popular singing, which incorporates recent movements in teaching the discipline across the globe, taking into account recent developments in the area. The book also features a new section on 'bridging' - ie. using all the technical elements outlined in the book to help the singer find their own particular expressive style to inspire more playfulness and creativity, both for the individual singer and for the teacher in practice and performance. Billboard Simon and Schuster

There are few works in existence that teach gospel singing and even fewer that focus on what gospel soloists need to know. In So You Want to Sing Gospel, Trineice Robinson-Martin offers the first resource to help individual gospel singers at all levels make the most of their primary instrument—their voice. Robinson-Martin gathers together key information on gospel music history, vocal pedagogy, musical style and performance, and its place in music ministry. So You Want to Sing Gospel covers such vital matters as historical, cultural and spiritual perspectives on the gospel music tradition, training one's voice, understanding the dynamic of sound production, grasping gospel style, and bringing together vocal performance with ministerial imperatives. She also includes in her discussion such matters as voice type, repertoire selection, and gospel sub-genres. Additional chapters by Scott McCoy and Wendy LeBorgne, and Matthew Edwards address universal questions of voice science and pedagogy, vocal health, and audio enhancement technology. The So You Want to Sing series is produced in partnership with the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Like all books in the series, So You Want to Sing Gospel features online supplemental material on the NATS website. Please visit www.nats.org to access style-specific exercises, audio and video files, and additional resources.

We all have treasures within. When we explore those treasures, “we offer hope to a dying world.” Treasures of hope will release so many others to share their experiences without guilt, shame or condemnation. Even the soft spoken will begin to allow their stories to burst forth like thunder. In order to become an overcomer, deliverance of some sort has to take place. We have each been given a gift, not a gift of gab, but a gift of the word of our testimony. When we use our testimonies to glorify God we show others that though there will always be “tests” the “monies” are never too far behind. Move outside of yourself and inspire others to live. Come out of bondage to secrecy.

Considered a poor but blessed family, I remember living in a one bedroom house with no bathroom and no running water, in a small town called White Plains in Alabama; later we moved to Valley, Alabama. As a teenager I began lip syncing and participating in a number of skits at the skating rink and disco clubs. After being converted from worldliness to righteousness and transformed by the renewing of my mind, I no longer thought or saw things the same. I realized that writing songs, poems and performing arts were gifts from God. Once I gave the gifts that God had given me back to Him and allowed Him to use me for His glory and not mine, I saw how God began to give me more of His wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of how to minister to His people according to what I'd been through and the words of my testimony. My constant prayer every day is, "if you can use anything Lord, you can use me".

F.A.I.T.H. From Almost Impossible to Hopeful is a memoir of the author. The main thought of the book is to have faith and trust in God in every impossible situation. It shows how a person, no matter the age, can truly trust and depend on God. Trust is what makes us go through an impossible situation, however big or small, and on to a hopeful situation. Circumstances come and go, and nine out of ten times, we dislike being in those cases, but the voice of God, the prophecy, is a very important atlas in a season in our life. As we listen to God via his servants, reading His Word, prophecy, and answered prayers, our level of understanding of and faith in God grow. God loves us; He is all about love and he does care for his children. Remember that the Lord leads our life and guides our steps. Dealing with life situations can and will leave us feeling like things are just impossible to change, but by trusting in Him, we begin to understand we can go from the impossible and that things are looking up and getting better. Things are beginning to be hopeful, and it's all because we have put our life in His hands and trust in Him. We can go from impossible to hopeful; we only have to have faith in God!⁵⁰
