Are you tired of living in fear? You know that great potential lies within you but you are too afraid to move forward. You know that there is a bright future ahead of you but you are concerned with what people will think. You know that God is calling you to do something great but because you cannot see the full picture, you fearfully stand still. In this Releasing the Fear and Walking in Faith, Ranelli Williams shares biblical truths and practical steps to help you conquer your fears and step out on faith into a world of bright hope, contentment, joy, peace, love, and prosperity. Further, in this revised and expanded version, Ranelli has invited individuals to share their personal testimonies of faith and the light and peace they received once they chose faith over fear and walk boldly in their purpose.

Live Abundantly Simon and Schuster

Live authentically, abundantly, and victoriously as you learn how to embrace God's will for your life. As one of the most sought-after realizations in this world, discovering your purpose is something countless self-help books will claim they can help you do, but they're missing the biggest piece of the puzzle: your relationship with God. If you're ready to wake up, shake up, break away from bondage, dust off the dullness, and discover genuine joy, it's time to take action and allow the Lord to take control of your life. True transformation can only occur when you're receptive to God's will for your life, and past sorrows and mistakes often prohibit you from moving forward and receiving Jesus's forgiveness and grace. But forgiving others-and receiving forgiveness from the Lord-is imperative for experiencing wholeness and freedom. Growing closer to God also requires some internal housecleaning. From chapters on dusting away anything that dulls the true joy of a relationship with God to receiving the living water from Jesus that quenches any thirst for fulfillment, learn how trusting God fully and seeking after His guidance are the real keys to receiving lasting contentment and transformation.

As much as we might wish for a magic crystal ball to give us answers, discernment is not a trick performed by a toy. There is no secret shortcut to knowing which job to take, house to buy, or relationship to pursue. The good news is that we do not have to make these decisions alone. As people of faith we know that every aspect of our lives is important to the God who created us for a life of purpose. In this inspiring and practical workbook, readers are introduced to some of the tools and practices that help us invite God into our decision making process, help us create prayerfully considered choices, and live with the confidence that God will use our choices to invite us into deeper and more fruitful relationship. The discernment process encourages people to fill the hunger in their lives for a deeper connection with the spiritual through a way of being and living that satisfies the hunger.

As infants who only understood oneness with the mother, we were surrounded by people, attitudes, traumas, relationship dynamics and all manner of parental projections with which we identified. We, therefore, hung our name tags on our parents' old unresolved and projected

"stuff" in certain prescribed ways that formed a mask and a costume meant especially for us. Though we were mistaken in donning the mask and costume laid out for us, this mistake kept us attached to our caregivers, and/or helped us survive sometimes horrendous childhoods. But our survival technique has now become the albatross around our necks, while we walk the planks laid out for us by the roles we play. Do we imagine that our problems are really the result of some external force? Again, we are mistaken. Most of the problems that we have today have come about as a result of the role we play, its script and the choices we have made out of that identity. The solution lies in finding the Authentic Self. And yet, our world teaches us that finding the

Authentic Self is, at best, a well-guarded secret passage of mythical proportions, and at worst, wasted time and effort, for it simply cannot be done. If we believe that, we are mistaken yet again. Not only is it possible to find and begin to live out of our authenticity, but it is the most hopeful journey we will ever take. It offers us the potential of a lasting peace, and yes, even joy. Working the pages of this book offers a practical yet deeply spiritual guide to finding and living the Authentic Self.

If people are taught how to study the Bible, it will become the living and active instrument of grace God intended it to be. The Living by the Book Workbook is a unique tool which will teach the reader the techniques and principles necessary to glean life-giving truths from Scripture. While the original Living by the Book focused on the learning processes, this workbook allows readers to do more implementation and integration of those principles. Great resource for small groups and individuals!

Is there someone God has laid on your heart that you've been unable to reach with traditional methods? When sharing the gospel with your children, grandchildren, coworkers, and neighbors, does it feel like you are walking in a foreign land? If you said, yes, you have found your guide. Cheri Cowell reveals the cultural and relational differences making traditional faithsharing ineffective with this current generation, and then provides a solution as ancient as the Scriptures, yet as fresh (and refreshing) as today's news. What is this new/old way? Through a fictional story thread running through each chapter, you will be introduced to an ancient/future way of sharing The Story. Here, you will meet eight people just like those you long to reach with the lifegiving message of Christ, and six people who speak this new language of faith. Alongside these stories, you will also hear The Story retold as it relates directly to the needs of these eight and, likewise, to those in your own life.

A Study in the Book of Ephesians Moody Pub

One day I woke up and realized that I had been lost for quite some time. I had got comfortable with how life was treating me. I no longer cared about how I presented myself, stuck between life and death, you know Purgatory. The real me had left long ago and the figure that I saw before me was just a shell that protects me until I could be found again. I had everything a woman could ask for and more yet somehow and somehow I forgot about myself and ended up in the purgatory of living. When I had my epiphany, I discovered some things that I should have seen all along but was too busy allowing life to consume me that I didn't care to pay attention. You know, taking care of kids, husband, family, work, friends and oh yeah, then me if I'm not too tired.... Me! One day I found myself on the outside of the milk carton... Lost, hanging in the purgatory of living. It was the shock of my life yet not a shock for everyone else. Most often others can see what's going on in your life even when you cannot (or you think you do). Don't let that to happen to you or to allow it to continue. You can step out of the purgatory of living and into a new beginning. It could be easier than you think it is. For me... I have some changing to do and the changing can only be done by me for me. I cannot change you or the rest of the world but we can help each other with the process of changing for the better.... TOGETHER! And look who we shall find! (You and me too) Let's begin... how did I lose myself? The Power of Faith; exemplified in the life and writings of the late Mrs. I. Graham of New York David C Cook

The Life on Purpose Workbook was designed by Life Coach and Writer. It is based on her own experience with living life on purpose, and her coaching work with women who want to live their life with more purpose and passion. This workbook will help to identify what you do want (your vision, your values). It will help you to organize all the goals and habits you want to add into your life. It will help you create a plan to put it all into action. It will help keep you on track with living your life, on purpose. Use this book if you are ready for: - Permission to listen to yourself and the things YOU want out of life - Peace to keep moving forward instead of the stress of hustling for perfection - Inquiry into what holds you back instead of keeping busy with distractions - Purpose in your daily life instead of feeling like life happens to you - Passion to show up for your life instead of living on autopilot

Gazing Into Glory Thomas Nelson

"It was the best of church, it was the worst of church..." [not Charles Dickens] In some ways, the church has a horrendous track record and is deserving of much of the hate, accusation and mistrust it has received. But, in many other ways, the church has also been monumental in affecting great systemic change, being first on the scene in crisis and on the forefront of reaching out to and loving well those considered the least of these. To those of you who believe church is the worst thing ever: You're right! To those of you who believe church is the best thing ever: You're right! The church was God's idea and it is the plan He has chosen to bring transformation to a world desperately in need of a deeper experience of His love. He doesn't appear to have a plan B. We are it! I call this book, 'i, church' because more than a building or a meeting or a list of do's and don'ts, the church is about the people. It is about me. And it is about you. If you love Jesus and have chosen to follow Him, then you are the church. Let's figure out together how to be the best church we can be. "Brett Anderson weaves a picture of the church that is stark and real. He sees through church politics and denominational blinkers and defines the core of what the church is and isn't and what God desires it to be." [Bruce Collins, legend and appreciator of good coffee]
