Joelle's Secret
Houghton Mifflin

Harcourt
In 1850, Temperance
Peabody, age 32, is a plain yet beautiful woman who has yet to know the thrill of romantic love. Raised in the Oregon
territory where her parents established a strict religious colony, she was never allowed to have a suitor
but now longs to have a family of her own. After her parents die
and a cholera epidemic wracks the colony, Temperance
feels called by

God to take the surviving orphaned children back East to their extended families. But the only man available to accompany her on the dangerous journey is Thaddeus
Brennan, a hard-edged drifter with good reasons of his own to get out of town. Despite the mismatch
of Temperance's
purity with Thad's hot temper, heavy drinking, and distaste for kids, the intensities of their trek help

the two find common ground, perhaps enough on which to build a lasting relationship.
But life and love are unpredictable.
And when another man and woman join the journey, and a shock awaits two of the orphans, this hearty story of faith and new desires duly follows.

Secret of Research
2022 In life things are not always as they appear. The

community views the vast majority of the researchers as honest, giving, devoted scientist, most of whom are. This is a story of two that have no clue as to the meaning of any of these qualities: Honest: If they can get away with it, so what if it takes a little lie?
 Giving: Sure, as long as they are the recipients.
 Devoted: By all means to the all mighty dollar. It is hard to comprehend anyone with such wonderful families could be so using, abusing and deceptive as these two Doctors. For years the two have used their positions in the research community to offer help to those with money and wish to start a family and for some reason are unable to conceive. For the right price they will help them, if things go wrong, so what. That's how it is with black market procedures preformed in a research lab, no matter how elegant they have made it. The customer has no-one to turn to if things go wrong. They are so intent upon doing others in, that they have forgotten one very important fact in business: 'Be careful who you trust.' With the government moving in on them they have no clue as to who the true informant is. We can only hope they get what they deserve in the end!

A Man for Temperance

Villard
My life is supposed to be a secret.
It's a bit lonely, but not too bad - especially when my nights are filled by talking to a man I just call
the Voice. The military has been tormenting us forever, those of us not deemed wealthy or special enough to be important.
One moment of weakness brings everything crashing down
around me,
and I'm sucked into the depths of their base. I've used my tech
abilities,
knowledge I've stolen and found, to hurt them, and suspicion is like a noose around my neck. I feel like I can hardly breathe. If they get even a hint of the things I've done, they would see me
locked away for the rest of my life - or just dead. Not trusting anyone is what's kept me alive, but now learning to trust the very men who brought me in
is the only way I'll make it out of here. But resources are running out for the people mismanaging
our little world.
Tensions are high, and I'm the reluctant key to a
drastic,
desperate change. One stupid mistake
turns everything on its head. I have to get convince both sides to work together, and I can only hope I'm in time to save my family.
