In simple terms, his book encapsulates the entirety of the papers I wrote to meet the requirements of the MBA program through City University. I also received an A on every one of them. Of course there is more to an MBA program than just writing papers, but doing so is by far the most time consuming and involved. So if you are looking to see what an "A" paper looks like, want to get ideas for your next paper, or want to find out if an MBA is right for you, this is the book you want. Other books may tell you what an MBA program is LIKE, but this book tells you what an MBA program IS!
